RHENISH HISTORY CORNER

(Series no.31)

Let us linger at the Rosalye van Dijk Media Centre entrance and examine a trio of watercolours.

“Charlie and the Chocolate Factory”

These stage sets were the “sketches” submitted to Mrs Elsa van Zyl, director of the school production of “Charlie and the Chocolate Factory” in 1988. Mrs Paddy Bouma, well-known local children’s book illustrator, and parent of Catherine and Nicholas, two Rhenish pupils, had been approached to paint the backdrops and arrange the stage sets for the production. The beautiful results are framed as a set outside the entrance to the Rosalye van Dijk Media Centre.

The music for this production was composed by the successful Stellenbosch musician, Leslie Ray Dowling, who also had a son, Henry, at Rhenish Primary.

The Music Department cordially invites you to the Annual Music Concert on
