PTA Day of Action

Dear Parents,

The PTA are organising a Day of Action on Saturday 28 February. On that day we would like parents and children from Rhenish to give us some of their time, energy and DIY skills to make our school an even more enjoyable place to learn.

We have asked the teachers to talk to the children in their classes and to tell us what little jobs they would like done in their classrooms. This might range from painting a few walls or pieces of furniture, to fixing a cupboard or planting a small garden.

Please save the date and look out for more information about the day from your Class Rep or from the PTA.

RHENISH HISTORY CORNER

(Series no.35)

While still thinking of swimming, let's pay a nostalgic visit to the old Rhenish Pool on the Braak.

It's not the leaving of Rhenish Pool that grieves me...

Two photographs appeared in the Eikestadnuus in April 1984. One photograph showed the pupils all enjoying the last swim ever in the old pool, the whole school jumping in together! The move to the new Doornbosch premises was made later that winter.

The second photograph showed a bevy of bathing beauties...the Rhenish Primary staff! The teachers surprised everyone by arriving in old-fashioned swimming costumes and jumping in too. Ms van Dÿk also joined in the fun, holding onto a red kickerboard.

For those with long memories, here follows the caption for the line-up:

(back 1-r): Ms Juanita Schmidt; Ms Christine Louw; Mrs Penny Luyendijk; Mrs Sally Woods;
Ms Liz Doo (De Gouveia); Ms Vivienne Botha; Ms Rosalye van Dÿk; Mrs Sandy Malan;
Mrs Betty Rynhoud (Jacobs); Mrs Shelley Young; Ms Jenny Lund.

(front 1-r): Mrs Mercia Theron; Mrs Marie Potgieter; Ms Annatjie Peens (Goedhals)
